

The Jasper Award

This is a special award to honour the memory of Jasper.

March 3, 1995 to September 5, 2007

When you bring a dog into your home you begin a journey that will reward you with more love and devotion than you have ever known. It will also test your strength and courage and if you allow, through their eyes you will learn about life, about yourself and most importantly, about love.

To be the kind of person your dog thinks you are, live by the following lessons of love that are Jasper's legacy to his family.

- 1. Above all else, be loyal, devoted & trustworthy.*
- 2. Practice tolerance & patience even when you need a nap.*
- 3. To err is human, to forgive is canine.*
- 4. Respect your neighbours; even the ones without fences.*
- 5. One lick is worth a thousand antidepressants.*
- 6. Walk as a dog does, discover the world and take time to enjoy the journey.*
- 7. You are never too old to play.*
- 8. Do silly things that your pet-less friends don't understand.*
- 9. Be the best friend you can be.*
- 10. Remember always that the most precious gift you have to give is unconditional love.*

In Recognition of A Partnership of Love and Learning

September 22nd, 2007

